BEST OF LONGFELLOW

DATE NIGHT

To have a great date night in Longfellow, you might start at Arbeiter for a beer and later walk down to Cloudland for a show! Don't forget to stop at Habanero for dinner in between. Another favorite combo of mine is renting a movie from East Lake Library and grabbing take-out from Himalayan!

Lauren Callis

Date night for my wife and I would likely be a meal at the Howe. My wife eats vegan. The Howe menu offers several options, and the staff actually know what that means.

Dan Swenson

Event at Arbeiter Brewing

OUR NEIGHBORHOOD

The Greater Longfellow neighborhood is the largest neighborhood in Minneapolis, made up of the Cooper, Hiawatha, Howe and Longfellow neighborhoods. This amenity-rich community is bordered on the East by the Mississippi River, the South by Minnehaha Falls, the West by Highway 55 (Hiawatha Avenue) and the Hiawatha Light Rail Line (LRT), and the North by the Midtown Greenway, a former railroad corridor turned into biking and walking trails.

Greater Longfellow is a destination neighborhood for many in the Twin Cities due to its close proximity to the Mississippi River, its many biking and walking trails, its diverse and delicious array of locally owned restaurants, and the historic and magnificent Minnehaha Falls.

The Greater Longfellow Neighborhood also proudly declares itself a Traditional Bungalow Neighborhood on signs throughout the community and has had its historic homes featured in magazines and books. Built to be affordable, manageable and, most of all, beautiful, Longfellow provides the perfect setting for these cozy Craftsman cottages.

Lake Street stretches through Longfellow to the Mississippi River, providing a vast array of shops and businesses. From curry to burgers, from flower shops to thrift stores, and from car mechanics to cappuccinos, you can be sure to find it here.

Community festivals are often held along the stretch of Minnehaha Ave. from the Hook and Ladder Theater to Moon Palace Books to Arbeiter Brewing, including the annual Soul of the Southside Juneteenth event.

Longfellow remains an affordable, friendly, diverse and walkable neighborhood, with scenery and livability second to none.

LoLa Art Crawl lolaart.org

The Biggest Little Neighborhood Art Crawl In Minneapolis is put on by The League of Longfellow Artists (LoLa) Art Crawl and showcases the diverse work of artists and crafters. The annual League of Longfellow Artists' Art Crawl each September aims to connect new and experienced Crawlers with local artists at their studios, in their homes, and at local businesses to discover unique art from over a hundred creators.

Vine Arts Center www.vineartscenter.org

A non-profit, member-run organization, the Vine Arts Center supports emerging and established artists, partners with the community, and provides space and support for visiting shows and events. 2637 27th Ave South, 612-728-5745

PARKS AND RECREATION

The Mississippi River Gorge

Hike, walk and roll along the only true gorge along the Mississippi River's 2,350-mile length. It is actively protected and restored by a group of Longfellow volunteers. The previously unnamed overlook near the intersection of West River Parkway and East 44th Street is now the "Horace W. S. Cleveland Overlook," honoring the landscape architect hired in April 1883 to advise the newly created Minneapolis Park Board on the development of a park system. The annual Longfellow River Gorge Festival in September includes canoe rides, live music and naturalist tours.

the Grand Rounds National Scenic Byway, a 50-mile outdoor recreation loop in the Minneapolis area.

Lock & Dam #1

Observe a working lock and dam as well as amazing views of the Mississippi River from the visitor center(5000 W River Parkway). It is open daily.

Dowling Community Garden

Two blocks west of the Mississippi river, the Dowling Community Garden is located on the grounds of the Dowling school, at 46th Avenue and 39th Street South. The garden is one of the last two remaining Victory Gardens in use today and hosts more than 250 gardeners on over 190 plots. It celebrated its 80th anniversary in 2023.

Minnehaha Regional Park & Falls

The jewel of this 193-acre park is the 53-foot waterfall that draws 850,000 visitors annually. Visitors also come to walk through limestone bluffs that follow Minnehaha Creek to the Mississippi River. Sea Salt Eatery draws people in the summer months, as do the regular free concerts. Find disc golf, a wading pool and playground at the Wabun area along the river. Other attractions include the Longfellow gardens built on top of the Hiawatha Ave. bridge, John H. Stevens House, the Princess Depot and the Minnehaha Falls Off-leash Dog Park. The new Friends of Minnehaha Falls is working to care for the park. The Longfellow House, which sits on the northwest end of Minnehaha Regional Park, introduces

Midtown Greenway midtowngreenway.org

The Greenway trails 5.5 miles of trails are plowed in the winter, lit at night, and open 24/7. Situated along a former railroad corridor in south Minneapolis, this "bicycle highway" is grade-separated from the street grid, either in a gorge passing under bridges carrying streets overhead, or on a levy with traffic passing underneath it. The Midtown Greenway Coalition is advocating for an expansion across the river into St. Paul.

Community Hops garden

This garden at Cheatham and 38th, the first of its kind, is devoted to cultivating hops for local use. It showcases a variety of hops grown for beer, and follows the traditional community/co-op garden model. A Homebrew Tasting event is held annually in late October.

A LONGFELLOW PARTNERSHIP

Longfellow
Business
Association

Messenger
Longfellow • Nokomis

The Longfellow Business Directory has been an important part of the Longfellow community going back to the 1990s. It was started to help foster better communication within the business community, and partially paid with Minneapolis Neighborhood Revitalization Program funds. When the grant money dried up, the Longfellow Business Association (LBA) wanted to continue publishing this important directory to link residents with local businesses. The LBA approached the Longfellow Nokomis Messenger about taking on the project despite the absence of an outside funding source.

While prior Directories had contained some advertising, the question posed to the Messenger was whether there would be enough support in the Longfellow business community through advertising to cover the costs of the printing and distribution of the Directory to the Longfellow community. The answer was “yes.” The business community agreed this directory provided an important link to local residents as it was delivered to each home in the community and was also available directly at local businesses. It’s a way for businesses to connect with customers and a way for residents to identify the myriad of businesses within walking distance. It’s something residents can hold in their hands, flip through, and keep in a drawer for easy reference.

The question, “Where did I see that?” becomes a lot easier to answer. You saw it in the Longfellow Business Directory.

The first Longfellow Business and Community Directory published in cooperation with the Longfellow Nokomis Messenger was produced in 2004. Do you remember the vibrant mosaic of the Lake Street Bridge in full autumn bloom on the front cover? The text on the cover described it as “Your guide for everything you need to work and live in the Longfellow area of Minneapolis.” Since then the Longfellow Business Directory has been published every two years, and is released with the December issue of the Messenger.

The 2024 Longfellow Business Directory is the 11th book that the two organizations have partnered on. LBA staff gather the information on Longfellow businesses, and Messenger staff sell the ads, produce the layout, and handle the printing and delivery. Starting with the 2018 Directory, a portion of the proceeds from the Directory has been earmarked as a contribution to the LBA annual budget to further support an integral neighborhood resource at the intersection of community and business.

Be sure to tell us how you’re using this book – and how it’s helping you shop local and support the businesses right down the street.

NETWORK WITH THE LBA

What are the benefits of your membership and involvement?

The LBA offers opportunities to improve my business, and stay up-to-date on local business news.

Dan Swenson

I appreciate the way that LBA organizes mixers for other business owners to meet one another. In the busy-ness of running an org/shop/restaurant/venue, there is a lot of isolation that can come up while you chip away in your own corner of the neighborhood. It's a fun thing to commiserate and support those around me that are working to make Longfellow so great. It's because of many of these businesses that we can thrive and continue to be a great spot for Longfellow residents to live and spend their time. Lauren Callis

How does the LBA build community?

LBA was the way I really started connecting to businesses that were having a shared experience, and it just feels really good to get to know your neighbors and community members!

Anna Tsantir

The benefits for Two Bettys and myself have been huge. Both professionally and personally. I have met people I might not have otherwise, and grown through working and collaborating with a diverse group of people with different opinions - which is kind of rare in the larger world right now! Anna Tsantir

f @LShealthyseniors

I love to check out Longfellow Community Council for what's happening in Longfellow over the weekend. Their newsletter is full of ideas - especially for the family! You might catch the river clean-up days or free canoeing! I start most Saturdays with pastries from Laune Bread. Everyone is so lovely that you're sure to run into someone you know! Brackett Park's playground is a perfect place to enjoy them!

Lauren Callis

BEST OF LONGFELLOW

FAMILY TIME

Arbeiter Brewery - I have yet to have a beer there I did not enjoy.

Dan Swenson

Check out what is happening at Curiosity Studios, hit up Moon Palace books, and coffee and a treat at Wildflyer!

Anna Tsantir

Farmer's Market!

Ken McCraley

Spend time at Minnehaha park. Or, watch a movie at the Riverview or Tylon.

Dan Swenson

Get gussied up and head over to the Bungalow Club. If you time it right, I love to catch Pasta and Trap on Sundays. Pasta is my favorite way to celebrate!

Lauren Callis

CELEBRATE WITH FRIENDS

Bungalow patio, or margaritas at Norteno's or Sonora Grill!

Anna Tsantir

Lunch at the Howe!

Education

"As a local business owner, I value the option to contribute to the Messenger, Connector, and Monitor through our advertising. I am happy to support a local paper that puts out quality journalism month after month and that represents the diversity of our community. It's a breath of fresh air at a time when so much news feels distant and out of touch with our day-to-day lives." ~ Joe Hayes, Hayes Window Restoration

PRINT CAN TRULY CAPTIVATE

The tangibility that print offers makes readers pay more attention to as compared to digital content. Readers actively engage with printed content - they pick it up, hold it and read it.

What does print offer that digital certainly doesn't?

An uninterrupted reading experience.
